

Historical Impacts of City Planning & Segregation -
Why we should care about CLT's Future 2040 Plan
April 25th 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm First Baptist Church West signup to register: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040b4aa5ad2b0-historical>

You are invited to attend our April 25th Panel discussion which is a bit different.

7:00 — Opening & Prayer Dr. Ricky Woods

7:05 — 8:30 Panel Discussion Led by Glenn Burkins as Moderator

8:15 — 8:30 Audience Q&A

Dr. Willie Griffin The Levine Museum of the New South staff historian will discuss the Historical impacts of City Planning and how it aided in segregating our Charlotte Neighborhoods

Dr. Griffin is a civil rights scholar and Charlotte native. He most recently served as the assistant professor of African-American History at The Citadel in South Carolina and holds a doctorate in U.S. history from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

He will be joined by Garet Johnson Assistant Director of the Charlotte City Planning staff and two community Residents. Garet will speak to : What is the Future 2040 Plan - What does it have to do with Affordable Housing & Neighborhoods

Glenn Burkins of Qcitymetro.

Qcitymetro.com is an independently owned, hyper-local website that offers news and information geared toward the African American community in Charlotte, N.C. We derive revenue by selling advertising space on our website to businesses, entrepreneurs and organizations wishing to connect with our growing au-

Garet Johnson, A.I.C.P., Assistant Director for Long Range and Strategic Planning Services for the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Planning Department. She has 25 years with the Charlotte Planning, Development and Design Department. Mrs. Johnson is currently responsible for managing two major functional areas within the Planning Department - Community Planning and Decision Analytics and Research.

Dr. Ricky A. Woods Senior Minister of First Baptist Church-West in 1995. He has worked tirelessly to not only serve as minister to the church's members, but also to help the church serve as a community beacon of social justice. He is CO-Founder of Equitable Communities CLT formerly known as the Color of Law CLT

