Dear Friend,

You are invited to THE GIG, an educational event for small business owners where you will learn federal procurement processes, proper licenses and certifications needed to conduct business with Federal agencies and how to obtain a Federal contract.

THE GIG will be held at the Jay Hurt Hub for Innovation and Entrepreneurship at Davidson College on May 6th from 12 pm to 2:30 pm.

Attendees will hear from and have the opportunity to speak directly with representatives from the Department of Transportation, Department of Veterans Affairs, Small Business Administration, Charlotte SCORE, and others!

Breakout workshop sessions include:

- Small Business, Big Opportunity: Top strategies to bid on and win government contracts - instructed by: Corvid Technologies and Rocus Networks
- Are You Ready: A Panel Discussion on Preparing Your Business to Contract with the Federal Government - instructed by: Attorneys Rachel Blunk and Adam Wane, Forrest Fir
- How Innovation Thinking Can Help Accelerate Your Company - instructed by: Everblue Training Institute and Corvos Labs + Venture Studio

If you are a small business owner or are considering starting a business, you need to attend!

RSVP here if you plan to attend.
