You don't get a promotion when you fail North Carolina families

Steve,

By now, I'm sure you've heard that our special election opponent is career politician Dan Bishop.

Time and time again, he has failed North Carolina families and embarrassed our state. Now he thinks he deserves a promotion.

He first rose to prominence as the architect of North Carolina's "bathroom bill," which discriminated against the LGBTQ community and cost our state billions in economic activity.

Then just a year later, days after the white supremacist rally in Charlottesville, he invested in a social media company popular with Neo-Nazis.

He has already earned Donald Trump's total endorsement.

The 9th District deserves a leader who shares our values, and that means we need to do everything we can to defeat Dan Bishop.

Make a \$3 donation to our campaign today, and we'll put it to work immediately organizing and sharing our message throughout the 9th District.

The only way to stop Dan Bishop's extreme agenda is to win this race, together. He needs to understand this: You don't get a promotion when you fail North Carolina families.

All our best,

Team McCready
