New race ratings for our special election

Hey Steve,

Two major election forecasters just rated our race.

Inside Elections: Tossup

Cook Political Report: Tossup

This is going to be a close race. In spite of Republicans' widespread absentee ballot scheme last year, our margin in November was just 905 votes.

Now this time we're going to get a fair fight.

But we've seen what happens in these special elections. Our opponent's special interest friends will flood our district with millions in dark money trying to buy the seat for him.

We know we can win this race, but it's going to take all of us working together. We have to organize everywhere in the 9th District and make sure everyone hears our message.

Can we count on you to help with that? Chip in \$3 today to help us continue growing our team and fight back against the attacks.

This race is going to be a sprint, and it's going to get expensive. So every dollar we invest now will go a long way to helping us win in September.

Thanks for your support,

Dan
