Will you help us stay on the air?

Steve -

Yesterday, we went up with our first TV ad of the special election.

It's a big moment for our campaign. We're putting out our positive message and making our case to the voters of the 9th District on TV and digital.

As you probably know, this is expensive, and we need to make sure we can keep our ad up. That's why we're launching a 72-hour fundraising drive.

Will you make a \$3 donation to our campaign right now? We'll invest it immediately in making sure that we can stay on the air.

My opponent has been on the air for weeks attacking me, and this is our chance to fight back.

His message is just a false attack on where I stand, but our ad is different. It's a positive message and makes clear that I'll fight for the people in Washington, not corporate special interests, to lower prescription drug prices and invest in public schools.

I've said from the start that we're going to run a campaign based on our values. That's what we're doing, and we need your help to keep up the fight:

Make a \$3 donation to our campaign right now and help us keep our first ad on the air.

Thank you in advance for your support. It means the world to me.

Yours in this fight,

Dan
