When we come together, we can do amazing things.

Steve -

I wanted to give you a quick update on a couple of things. This special election is really important, and with just 74 days to go until Election Day, I want to make sure our top supporters are kept in the loop.

This the last undecided House race of 2018 AND the first major race of the 2020 cycle. That means a lot of people are watching this race.

Last quarter, we announced impressive fundraising totals thanks to the thousands of grassroots donors who stepped up when our special election was called.

But we didn't have our opponent at the time. Now our campaign's success is going to be compared to how much our opponent has raised since his primary. We know that DC insiders are stepping up big time to prop up his campaign, and they're preparing to flood our district with their special interest money.

With this deadline, it's our job to keep up our momentum. We have to demonstrate that our campaign has the grassroots support and the resources necessary to win.

If you can afford to, please make a \$3 donation to our campaign before this week's official FEC deadline. Dan cannot do this alone.

We each have a role in this campaign, and when we come together, we can do amazing things. That's how we'll win this race on Election Day.

Thank you in advance for chipping in and having our back. It means a lot to our team.

All my best,

Colleen Martin
Campaign Manager
