The Supreme Court handed down a terrible decision in the North Carolina gerrymandering case

Steve -

Last week in the North Carolina gerrymandering case, the Supreme Court upheld partisan gerrymandering. They absolved themselves of any responsibility by saying partisan gerrymandering was a political question.

This decision will go down, along with Citizens United, as one of the worst decisions in American history.

Their decision to allow partisan gerrymandering is a decision to legalize cheating.

THIS is why elections matter.

In our election, the people have faced every form of cheating: gerrymandering, unlimited special interest money, and the largest case of election fraud in recent American history. But still, in this district that President Trump won by nearly 12 points, we are neck and neck with our opponent with just weeks to go.

This ruling only gives me even more reason to keep fighting to put the power back in the hands of the people, not the corrupt politicians and special interests. It should motivate you, too.

If you're as outraged as I am by the Supreme Court's decision, I want you to join me in fighting back.

Chip in now and let's show that if the Supreme Court won't stop the cheating, the people will have their say.

We can do this. Together.
