DAN MCCREADY

FOR CONGRESS

Steve -

I've been crisscrossing the 9th District recently — visiting all eight counties to hear from people in every community.

I've marched in parades, worshipped in churches, held roundtables with faith leaders, and hosted an affordable healthcare tour!

This is the kind of grassroots campaigning I love, and it's how we're going to win. So today I wanted to share a few fun highlights with you below.

Here we are marching in the Indian Trail Independence Day Parade.

This was my third year at Lumbee Homecoming. Here I am digging into a collard sandwich, a Lumbee specialty.

In Bladen County we talked about lowering prescription drug costs, supporting public schools, and protecting our right to vote after the historic election fraud last November.

It was a packed house at Mt. Calvary AME Zion Church in Monroe, where questions ranged from prescription drug costs, to Medicare, to education.

In Anson County we hosted a Fish Fry!

We're working non-stop to make sure voters know I'll fight for everyone. We've hired staff and opened offices in every part of the district to help us organize and reach more voters. With your help, we can do even more.

Can you make a \$3 to help us continue organizing across the 9th District? We'll invest it immediately in growing and supporting our grassroots campaign.

Thank you for helping us build this already incredible campaign.

Let's keep it going!

Dan
