Agenda

Betty Howell Gray, NC ABSE, Acting President and NC NABSE Affiliates; Membership Recruitment and Retention
Opened to everyone: superintendents, administrators, teachers, paraprofessionals, retired personnel, parents, clergy, college professors & students, parents, clergy, and community leaders. Everyone is needed to serve as the village for NC students, especially students of African descent.
Dr. Andre Spencer, Chair of NABSE's Superintendent Commission, New York Public Schools, An overview of NABSE and Programs
Dr. Eric Witherspoon, California, Generation Ready National Director & experts with positive results in school equity and topics to include the what, why, and how to educational equity. These ongoing learning opportunities are specific to the needs of staff and goals for improvement. Many take aways to help staff become experts in culturally responsive teaching. If your school district has 39 percent students of color not meeting standards, it is critical that representatives from your school districts are in attendance. RSVP today!
Action Plan: How NABSE's Affiliates can work with School Districts to enhance student achievement.

Meeting Dates: October 12, 2019; January 11, 2020; April 11, 2020; July 18, 2020 & Conference Calls TBD
