Your Consistent Progressive Voice

Dear Steve,

This first term as your at-large representative has been more of a sprint than a marathon. But I still have so much energy to keep fighting - especially when it comes to affordable housing. Prior to accepting a seat on Charlotte City Council District 5, I was proud to serve on the Board of Commissioners of the Charlotte Housing Authority (CHA) from 2015 to 2017. In my capacity I served 25,000 individuals in Charlotte, providing housing and supportive services.

I continue to advocate for expanding access to affordable housing. Learn more about the affordable housing strides we, as a Council, made to address this pressing city-wide issue in 2018 as it relates to the $50 million bond referendum.

On Monday, July 23, 2019, we unanimously voted on eight projects. The plan includes spending $12.8 million from the Housing Trust Fund and donating nearly $5 million in city-owned land for the projects.

If you have questions about Affordable Housing, or any issues important to you within my purview, please contact me dimple.ajmera@charlottenc.gov. I'm always here for you.

Sincerely,

Dimple Ajmera
Charlotte City Council
