COMMUNITIES

Dear Steve,

I'm writing to share an exciting opportunity...

The League of Creative Interventionists is accepting applications now through August 2, 2019 for its Charlotte Regional Fellowship program.

CLICK HERE TO LEARN MORE + APPLY

Fellows will:

- Support the Project PLACE initiative in the Lakewood community, a successful project from 2018 Fellow Quintel Gwinn, but will work on their own projects as well

- Collaborate with neighborhood residents and existing local organizations to create a project that positively impacts the community
- Propel co-creative action at a neighborhood scale in partnership with community leaders, local organizations and residents
- Create projects that present equitable, sustainable and generative opportunities for communities
- Fully support their own project including project timelines, budget management, marketing and outreach, etc.
- Create written and video documentation of their project for blogs, social media, etc.

Fellows receive:

- A $5000 stipend
- A budget for project materials
- Access to established community leaders in Charlotte
- Opportunity to grow their social and professional network in Charlotte

To apply:

The deadline to apply is August 2, 11:59 p.m. ET.

ABOUT THE LEAGUE OF CREATIVE INTERVENTIONISTS:

The League of Creative Interventionists (LOCI) is a non-profit organization that creates public art and cultural programs with communities to tell real and just narratives, create empathetic spaces, and develop powerful leaders.

The League Fellowship Program elevates passionate neighborhood residents to connected and powerful leaders. The program provides them with both the resources to reimagine their neighborhood with powerful acts of culture and also valuable access to a national network of peers and mentors.

The League of Creative Interventionists is supported by the John S. and James L. Knight Foundation.

Contact hello@creativeinterventionists.com with any questions, and please share this opportunity with your networks.

Best,
