"I am honored to host Dr. Biden," said Adams. "As a fellow educator and advocate for women, I can't imagine a better person to talk to our supporters about how important next year's election is."

Interested parties can purchase tickets to the event via this link.

Jill Biden is a community college professor and served as Second Lady of the United States from 2009 to 2017. During the Obama-Biden Administration, she advocated for military families, community colleges, the fight against cancer, and the education of women and girls around the world. Today, she continues her work teaching English at Northern Virginia Community College and is traveling the nation to help elect her husband, Vice President Joe Biden, to the Presidency of the United States.

In 2014, Congresswoman Alma Adams was elected to Congress representing the 12th Congressional District. Since then, she has put Charlotte's interests first by fighting for affordable housing, working to end our hunger crisis, and bringing home federal resources

for

CATS and Charlotte Douglas International Airport. She is the co-chair and founder of the first Bipartisan HBCU Caucus in Congress.
