Here's the situation:

Steve -

Wanted to reach out with a quick update about our special election. There are just 22 days left until Election Day, and it's important that our top supporters are in the loop about this final stretch.

Here's the situation: The latest polling has us tied, and the grassroots momentum is on our side. But now outside special interests are spending over $4 million to try to buy this for our opponent.

They're terrified because they know that we can win a seat that Democrats have not held since 1963. That's why they've launched false attacks against Dan. They're willing to spend and say whatever it takes to try to stop our grassroots campaign.

So we cannot let up now. We have to push even harder to make sure we have the resources to compete.

If you can, please make a \$3 donation to our campaign ahead of Wednesday's official FEC deadline. It's the last one of our special election, so there's never been a more important moment to have your support.

Everyone has a role to play in our campaign's success, and if we come together now, we will win this race on Election Day.

Thanks for doing your part to help us do it. Your support means the world to Dan and the entire team.

All my best,

Colleen Martin
Campaign Manager
