Hello Friends,

I first got to know Elyse as a parent and school leader when her daughter Emma was in my Language Arts class nearly a decade ago. I was excited when this person I knew to be so hardworking and dedicated ran for school board and thrilled when she won.

In the four years Elyse has served on the school board, I have seen her commitment to teachers over and over. We worked together to craft a board statement affirming CMS employees' rights to free expression. She collaborated with county commissioners to make CMS the highest-paying district for teachers in the state. When educators have marched in Raleigh to press state legislators to do better for schools, she has been right by our side every time.

Now Elyse is running for re-election. Please consider supporting her campaign, so that we can continue to have a leader who believes as deeply in the value of teachers as she does.

Thanks,

Justin Parmenter
