Another Trump + Bishop rally

Steve -

Last night, Donald Trump attacked our campaign and announced that he's coming back to North Carolina soon. Take a look:

We know what to expect because we've seen this before. Remember this rally from July when they threw baseless attacks at Dan:

The president is going to keep launching these baseless attacks because they know we can win. They know that the polls are tied, and we have the grassroots momentum on our side.

So now they're getting desperate and trying to prop up Dan Bishop's campaign. That's why their special interest allies are dumping millions into attack ads in the 9th District.

With the DC Republican establishment going all-in for our opponent, we have to be ready for anything. There are just 18 days until Election Day, and their attacks are going to get worse.

But if we stand together and make sure that the voters hear our message, then we are going to win.

Will you make a \$3 donation to our special election campaign right now? DC Republicans and special interests are trying to drown out our voices with these smears, but with your help, we won't let them.

There's no telling what this rally will be like, but we know the attacks are coming. So thank you for making sure we have the resources to fight back.

Let's leave it all on the field!
