We have to press harder in these final weeks.

Steve -

Here's a number I've been watching closely: $5,276,559.

It's how much money Republicans have already announced they're spending against us in this special election. And that's just on TV.

I'll be blunt: We don't have that kind of money. Dan has rejected all corporate PAC money, and we're running a grassroots campaign powered by people like you.

The good news is that we don't have to outspend them. Despite all this outside spending, we're still tied in the polls. But with 15 days to go, we cannot take anything for granted or let them drown us out.

We have to press harder because there's no telling how much they'll pump into our district in the final days of our race.

Will you make a \$3 donation to our campaign right now to help us keep up our momentum and fight back against the special interest spending? They're trying to buy this seat for our far-right opponent, and it's up to us to stop them.

Thank you for being part of this team. It's your support that will get us across the finish line.
