Dan's been focused on debate prep, not fundraising.

Steve -

I just got out of our last debate prep session with Dan. He's fired up and ready to take the stage to fight for all of us.

In just a few hours, he's going to go head to head with Dan Bishop to debate the issues and remind voters about Bishop's terrible record.

Look, preparing for a debate is no simple task. It takes a lot of time — especially when we know our opponent is going to throw false attacks at Dan. Between all of our campaign events and the debate prep, it means we've had to focus away from fundraising.

Unfortunately, that means we've fallen a little behind pace on our fundraising. That's not great when we still need to close our budget gap.

I want to make sure we can keep Dan's attention on our efforts to talk to and turn out voters in these final days, but I need your help to help us get back on track.

Will you make a \$3 donation before tonight's debate to help us pick up our fundraising momentum? I would not ask if it were not critically important.

Thank you for having Dan's back as we head into this debate. It's an important moment for our campaign, and your support will help us keep Dan's time focused on what matters most.
