Steve -

I've been on this race since July 2017, 769 days to be exact. At the time, Dan had just announced, and our team was nowhere near the size it is today.

Our small but scrappy team worked day and night for nearly two years, and on Election Day 2018, we almost flipped this district. We brought it closer than anyone thought was possible — just 905 votes separated us from our opponent.

A few weeks after that Election Day, we got word that those results were tainted by a massive election fraud scheme — perpetrated and funded by Republicans. Dan withdrew his concession, and we began our fight for justice.

People across the nation joined our fight, and our grassroots team grew. Then when our special election was called in February, our team grew even more. And now with five days to go, we've built one of the biggest grassroots teams North Carolina has ever seen.

We've faced many tests along the way. But every time, this grassroots team has risen to meet the challenge.

We got our special election — a second chance for justice. Once again, the polling shows us within the margin of error, and there's a real chance this will come down to just a handful of votes once more.

It's time to get across the finish line. Make a $3 donation right now, and we'll put it to work immediately to make sure voters get to the polls and vote for Dan.

After 27 months, rampant election fraud, and Republican Super PACs spending millions against us, the polling is all within the margin of error. We really can do this.

There's no doubt in my mind that if we all step up and do our part at this critical moment, then we are going to win on Tuesday. We'll stop Republicans from buying this seat, and the people will finally get justice.

Thank you for doing your part to make it happen!
