2019 Soiree Honoree:
Chance Lewis

Profound Gentlemen is thrilled to announce this year's Annual Soiree honoree, Dr. Chance Lewis of the University of North Carolina Charlotte. As one of the leading scholars on Urban Education, Dr. Lewis' research has been foundational to the development of Profound Gentlemen, and it's program model. His roles as a mentor and champion of the organization continue to fuel Profound Gentlemen's impact on male educators of color.

Dr. Lewis is the Carol Grotnes Belk Distinguished Professor of Urban Education at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He is also the Executive Director of UNCC's Center for Urban Education Collaborative, which is dedicated to disseminating the next generation of research and practice for the improvement of teaching and learning in urban schools. Dr. Chance W. Lewis has over 100 publications, including the books The Dilemmas of Being an African American Male in the 21st Century; African American Male Students in PreK-12 Schools: Information, Policy, and Practice and Black Male Teachers: Diversifying the United States Education Workforce.

This year's annual Soiree will be held on Thursday, November 14th at the University of North Carolina Charlotte's Cone Center. Join us for this special event to celebrate Profound Gentlemen's fifth anniversary and the community of individuals who support Dr. Chance Lewis, who continue to support us.
