DAN MCCREADY

FOR CONGRESS

Dear Steve,

I've just finished a few days unplugged. It's been great to be a Dad again!

Laura and I wanted to circle back and let you know how much we appreciated your thoughts, prayers, and encouragement in the days after Election Day. It's a heck of a transition going from 27 months of campaigning to regular life, and we're thankful for your support every step of the way.

The truth is, this campaign never would have been possible without you. We were so grateful to have you on the team.

My kids are too young now to understand the last 27 months, let alone what's happening now in our country. But one day, they will. And I'll tell them about how together we stood up and fought to bring our country together. You should tell your kids that story, too.

Even though we didn't win this race, we moved our community and our country forward. A Democrat hasn't represented our district since JFK was President, yet we came within an inch of winning. And we showed the entire country that Democrats can compete in the reddest of districts when we put people first.

In the coming days, I'm putting together my thoughts on the lessons we learned in this special election in hopes they will help other campaigns in 2020. Stay tuned!

Now back to the kids...

Dan
