Dear Friends and Partners,

We did it.

Thanks to your support, I have been re-elected to the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Board of Education with 34,903 votes.

Thank you for allowing me to serve the children and educators of CMS for another four years. It is a tremendous honor, and a responsibility that I do not take lightly.

Thank you for sharing the message of this campaign: That we must be courageously honest about the inequity that exists in our community – and the inequity that shows up in our schools. And we must also be clear that the solutions are in our schools. We must be ever more brave and tenacious as we set about supporting solutions in our schools. We must be champions for all children. We must collaborate on behalf of better academic, career, and life outcomes for our kids.

And now, together, let's move forward with the work of connecting our students to the opportunities they so greatly need and deserve.

Humbly and sincerely yours,
