Hitting the Highlights

[From festivals to food trucks, free concerts, and Open Streets 704 ... 2019 was one incredible year for enjoying the outdoors in Mecklenburg County area parks. With so many things to choose from, the most difficult decision wasn't "what" to do, but "where" to go! Thanks to your participation in 2019, Partners for Parks was able to support, promote, and fund even more meaningful, equitable, and engaging community events. Here's a look at the impact of YOUR partnership. Rapper Rocks Meck's First Fall Festival

Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation director Lee Jones knows a good thing when he sees it. When Jones spied entertainer Saul Paul at the 2018 National Recreation and Parks Association meeting, he knew the crowd favorite would be the perfect headliner for Mecklenburg County Park and Recreation's first ever Fall Festival. Partners for Parks was happy to help make Jones' vision a reality. Click here to read our full article about how it all went down: <http://partnersforparks.org/saulpaul-headlines-first-mecklenburg-county-park-recreation-fall-festival-with-donation-from-partners-for-parks/>

As always, thank YOU for your partnership in the past year. We hope you'll continue to see the value in helping us act on our mission to improve the quality of life for the citizens of Mecklenburg County and the surrounding region by preserving, promoting and enhancing the parks, greenways, open spaces, active play and recreational opportunities within our community.

Happy Holidays!

Partners for Parks aims to improve the quality of life for the citizens of Mecklenburg County and the surrounding region by preserving, promoting and enhancing the parks, greenways, open spaces, active play and recreational opportunities within our community.
