Vision. Commitment. Action.

As I reflect upon the life and legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. on this my favorite holiday weekend, I am thankful for the continued endurance of his vision for peace, equity, and opportunity for all. In my view, the legacy of Dr. King is one of love, service, community, and JUSTICE. Each part of that legacy requires daily commitment and intentional action. Through my volunteer service and my work as a lawyer and now Juvenile Court Judge, I seek to advance Dr. King's vision. I am humbled to have been recognized this morning by the McCrorey YMCA with the Drum Major Award for more than fifteen years of consistent volunteer service to the children and families of Charlotte's Northwest Corridor. More importantly, I am thankful to have worked closely with amazing women and men who share my commitment to improving the lives of children and are willing to pour countless hours into our community work.

Early voting starts Feb 13 | Primary election is March 3
