

Project L.I.F.T. is an innovative, community initiative working to improve outcomes and eliminate education disparities for minority and low-income students.

We will increase the graduation rate to 90 percent.

Project L.I.F.T. is currently being implemented in nine Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools with the goal of increasing the graduation rate to 90 percent.

- Allenbrook
- Ashley Park (PreK-8)
- Bruns Avenue (PreK-8)
- Druid Hills Academy (PreK-8)
- Ranson IB Middle School
- Statesville Road
- Thomasboro (PreK-8)
- Walter G. Byers (PreK-8)
- West Charlotte High School

Transformation requires a community effort.

As a community we recognize the achievement gap that separates minority and low-income students from their peers has far reaching economic and social implications for everyone. The transformation we seek with Project L.I.F.T. requires the entire community contributes.
