I humbly submit to you on the eve of Black History Month the following:

Each week, I will submit to you an African-American Woman for your voting consideration in the upcoming Tuesday, March 3rd, 2020 Primary.

First up, 12th Congressional Representative, Congresswoman Alma Adams Ph.D.....

I have known Ms. Alma as I affectionately refer to her since 1998.

If you are in my 100k person database you know Ms. Alma and I have passionately been on opposite sides of the 12th, but here's the thing...

Ms. Alma and I were brought together by some who are no longer here, specifically, Don Baker and Rep. Earline Parmon, but yet God has seen fit to keep us here. #WatchGod

At 53, I am learning that when God builds your bond and forges your friendship no man, woman or campaign can keep it asunder.

Congresswoman Alma Adams, Ph.D is a phenomenal friend, a wonderful woman doing a powerful job with a steady hand in uncertain political times.

Let us celebrate her, pray for her and love on her now and beginning Thursday, February 13th until Tuesday, March 3rd if you reside in the 12th Congressional District let's vote for her.

Go to www.meckboe.org to find out more voter information so YOU ARE READY! ¹⁰⁰
