Early Voting: Feb 13-29 | Primary: March 3

Greetings!

With the start of early voting just over one week away, I am humbled to have the support of a diverse cross-section of the legal and broader community and honored to have the endorsement of seasoned colleagues. These judicial supporters are skilled, knowledgeable, and experienced judges who have a first-hand understanding of the disposition, legal practice experience, and leadership aptitude that are required to serve on the bench.

- Honorable Shirley L. Fulton
- Honorable Kimberly Y. Best
- Honorable Donald Cureton
- Honorable Ty Hands
- Honorable Gary Henderson
- Honorable Tracy Hewett
- Honorable Christy Mann
- Honorable Rickye McKoy-Mitchell
- Honorable Elizabeth Trosch
- Honorable Roy Wiggins

I have worked hand in hand, in various capacities, with these colleagues for many years. They each share their respect for my commitment to serve children and families, extensive knowledge of the law, and humility.

"It has been an honor to know Judge Blake since I became a licensed member of the bar over 15 years ago. Her experience in the profession is vast and an attribute on the bench. I support her re-election, and I am happy to be her colleague," shared Judge Donald Cureton.

"Judge Blake is an asset to Mecklenburg County Juvenile Court," says Judge Elizabeth Trosch. "She demands excellence from every adult who works with children in juvenile court. Judge Blake holds everyone to the same standard she holds for herself. I am confident that she will continue to insist that all Mecklenburg County children are safe, valued and empowered."

I humbly ask for your re-election vote so I may continue to serve the children and families of Mecklenburg County.

Regards,

Judge Aretha Blake
