Bill Honoring Julius Chambers Passes House

Washington, D.C. – Congresswoman Alma S. Adams, Ph.D., (NC-12)’s bill to name a Charlotte Post Office in honor of civil rights legend Julius Chambers has passed the House.

In prepared floor remarks, Congresswoman Adams said, “my state and our nation are undoubtedly better for the life of Julius L. Chambers. During this Black History Month, I hope that my colleagues will join me in voting in favor of this legislation and help me honor this civil rights legend in a community he worked so hard to improve.”

H.R. 4981 would designate the US Post Office facility at 2505 Derita Avenue in Charlotte, North Carolina as the Julius L. Chambers Civil Rights Memorial Post Office. The post office is in North Carolina’s 12th Congressional District. The bill now moves to the Senate for approval.
