Rep. Adams Announces the 2020 Congressional Art Competition

Charlotte – Congresswoman Alma S. Adams, Ph.D. (NC-12) is honored to announce the 2020 Congressional Art Competition, which is open to Charlotte-Mecklenburg high school students who reside and/or attend school in the 12th Congressional District.

“As a 40-year art educator, I am happy to announce that my office is now accepting submissions for the 2020 Congressional Art Competition from high school students who live in or attend school in North Carolina’s 12th Congressional District,” said Congresswoman Adams. “From Romare Bearden of Charlotte to Herb Jackson of Davidson and many others, the 12th District has a lot of artistic talent. I can’t wait to see what you create!”

Students are encouraged to submit their best artwork. The winner from the 12th Congressional District will have their art displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one full year alongside the winning pieces from Congressional districts across the country. In addition, the winner will also receive two round-trip tickets to Washington, D.C. to attend the annual awards ceremony and will be eligible to be considered for a scholarship to The Savannah College of Arts and Design.

How to Participate:

Interested students must submit their artwork by 4:00 pm on Friday, April 17, 2020 to Congresswoman Adams’ district office located at 801 E. Morehead Street, Suite 150, Charlotte, North Carolina, 28202. Information about additional rules and regulations is available at <http://adams.house.gov>.
