Hello,

Please see the email communication below from Communities in Schools (CIS) about offering support to students during this time.

Best,
Tiffany

Dear CIS Volunteers,

Many of you have reached out to Communities In Schools in the past week; are part of CIS On Call, CIS Success Coaches, or Social Capital Investors. A common denominator uniting each of you is your care for our students, community and schools. We have been in daily communication with CMS, Classroom Central, Promising Pages, Read Charlotte and HEART Math tutoring to identify, align and coordinate resources. To date, two specific opportunities for you to support CMS students during the COVID 19 crisis include:

CMS School Feeding Sites Book/Supply Distribution

- Set-up student backpack area, hand out backpacks, and breakdown backpack tables at each of the meal distribution school sites.
- Set-up distribution area, hand out books and supplies, and clean up materials at the conclusion of the event.

Promising Pages – Help organize book/learning packages for students

- <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/60B0449AFAF22A0FE3-volunteer1>

Please sign up if you are in a position to help. We will be sending other opportunities in the coming weeks. Most of all, knowing there is a community standing ready to support students who are lacking food, internet access and supplemental learning resources means so much. We send supportive thoughts to each of you as well.

Take care and be healthy. We can be connected in spirit even when practicing social distancing.
Best regards,
Andreia Graddick, James Berkman, Karen Sutton, and Sarah Shifflet
