Parks are some of our most beautiful natural resources, so it can sound confusing when we hear about places we consider "open spaces" like beaches, campgrounds, and state parks are closed. Paired with the fact that most of us are mercifully unfamiliar with stay-at-home orders and other ordinances that restrict our day-to-day movement, it's easy to be left wondering. Rest assured, you can STILL get outside, be active, and enjoy the weather. Here are the new rules of engagement with the outdoors: <https://partnersforparks.org/get-outside-and-play-but-new-rules-apply/>

Do you have more questions about the local stay-at-home order? Mecklenburg County has an FAQ sheet on its website. There's also a hotline for folks who want to know more about what is and isn't allowed under the stay-at-home order. That number is 704-353-1926. It's staffed from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.
