Read Charlotte Data Collaborative

Hear firsthand from partners as they share challenges, insights and what they now do differently as a result of adopting six major data routines.

COME LEARN WITH US!

Three years of data & insights

Our panelists:

Dr. Sheila Ijames, YWCA

Stephanie Watts, Charlotte Bilingual Preschool

Leslie Wilson, Ada Jenkins Center

Amanda Wilkinson, YMCA (Y Readers)

This event is for you if:

1. You are interested in how organizations can improve their impact by embedding data use in regular routines.

2. You are curious about how implementation (or process) data can be used to improve children's literacy.

3. You want to hear about the challenges and successes when using assessment to drive decision-making and action.

4. You are interested in literacy assessments, evidence-based practices, quality implementation and continuous improvement.
5. You are intrigued by the idea of an improvement mindset: a perpetual search for opportunities to improve.

While this session includes organizations focused on literacy, many other nonprofit and public sector organizations can benefit from the insights from this session.
