Join us from home to engage in live conversations about the future of our communities and democracy.

COAST TO COASTThe possibilities in our public streets

Tuesday, May 26, 1 p.m. ET | 10 a.m. PT

Public streets have the untapped potential to be new avenues for economic recovery. How do we leverage city and neighborhood streets so they work for our communities? Episode 4 of Coast to Coast will feature two experts in community design: Chelina Odbert, Knight Public Spaces Fellow and executive director of KDI Design, and Raphael Clemente, executive director of the West Palm Beach Downtown Development Authority. They'll share their insights on designing streets and public spaces that serve the needs of all residents of a community.

Hosted by Lilian Coral and Lilly Weinberg | Knight directors in Community and National Initiatives Program

RSVPVISION*Capturing the votes of all Americans

Thursday, May 28, 1 p.m. ET | 10 a.m. PT

Will COVID-19 change who can access the polls? How do we ensure all Americans can have a voice on election day? Episode 6 of VISION will continue our look at the pandemic's influence on the national elections. The conversation will feature Spencer Overton, president of the Joint Center for Political and Economic Studies, and Arturo Vargas, CEO of the National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials. They'll lend their insights on the forthcoming election and ways to build inclusive voting practices.

Hosted by Sam Gill | SVP/Chief Program Officer at Knight Foundation
