Getting Outside? Take This With You!

It's Spring! And despite some chilly mornings and all of this recent rain, many of us are making time to get outside; hopefully, in a socially responsible way. Parks and Greenways have stayed open, and Shared Streets, and more greenway connectors have opened up to encourage more walks, rides, and healthy activities. But social distancing rules still apply, even as restrictions slowly loosen around us. Click here for the info you'll want to take with you on this long weekend — and beyond.

Some Spring Cleaning

Like many of you, we've spent some of this stay-at-home time getting things in order. Particularly, we've done some spring cleaning on our website to make it even easier for you to see the many opportunities to support the work of Partners for Parks. From trees to park benches, camp scholarships to dog parks... there's a way for you to give directly to the parks programs you love most. Click here to see the many different ways your partnership impacts parks, and how easy it is to be a part of it!
