Greetings-

Last Monday, June 8, 2020, Representative Karen Bass (D-CA), Chair of the Congressional Black Caucus, Senator Corey Booker (D-NJ), and Senator Kamala Harris, along with 164 other House Members and 33 other Senators, introduced the Justice in Policing Act of 2020.

The Justice in Policing Act is the first-ever bold, comprehensive approach to hold police accountable, change the culture of law enforcement and build trust between law enforcement and our communities. This sweeping legislation will take numerous key steps to achieve transformative, structural change to combat the pattern of police brutality and racial injustice, including banning chokeholds, ending racial profiling, establishing a National Police Misconduct Registry, and demilitarizing the police.

As of today, the bill now has over 200 House Members as cosponsors and is slated for swift consideration on the floor of the House of Representatives.
