We can be change-makers

Steve,

America continues to confront injustices within our society, and the calls for meaningful, long-lasting change continue to grow louder. As an activist, my dad fought for change, starting in the 60s. And now, those calls are finally being answered.

Both House and Senate Democrats are addressing police accountability with new legislation -- George Floyd Justice in Policing Act of 2020. This landmark legislation will provide broad reforms to address police misconduct head-on. But in order to get this reform package passed, we all must work together. That's why today, I'm asking you to join me in calling for this critical bill to be passed.

Become a citizen co-sponsor of the Justice in Policing Act today and ensure that our calls for impactful police reform are answered.

When passed, the Justice in Policing Act will enact a national ban on chokeholds and no-knock warrants for drug-related offenses, and establish a National Police Misconduct Registry to ensure that bad policing is held accountable. These are essential first steps to improve safety in our communities, and we must lift up our voices to demand that this bill is passed.

We finally have this opportunity to address these longstanding issues and build trust between law enforcement and the communities they serve. Sign on now to become a citizen co-sponsor for the Justice in Policing Act and create the change we want to see in the world.

Thank you for taking a stand with me,

Cynthia
