Hi -

Christina here from Ellevate Network, I am reaching out with some really fantastic news about Ellevate and you.

We all have moments when we could use some clarity. Whether it's figuring out your next career move, how to navigate your job in a new city, or even how to balance your side hustle — advice from others who have been in your shoes can be invaluable. At Ellevate, we curate the collective wisdom of our coalition of successful and supportive women+ and make it available for you when you need it. That's why we're giving everyone Ellevate memberships — you can get started with your Limited Access for free.

When you start your membership, you'll have Limited Access - an introduction to all things Ellevate, for those who understand the power of a trusted group of peers, but don't know where to start. As a part of Ellevate, you'll have a chance to learn from experts and attend events (in person and online) where you'll meet people who can help you move your career forward.

Since you've been getting The Morning Boost or attended an Ellevate event, we've already created a membership for you! Head on over to the log in page to get into your account and hit the ground running.

What do you get when start your membership?

- Inspiring content delivered to your inbox 3x a week including insights to build your skills
- Access local and virtual networking events:
 - Free Tickets to Virtual Mobilize Women Events, Webinars, Virtual Community Chats
 - $10 Tickets to Virtual Roundtables, Mentoring Meetups & Workshops
- Sharpen your skills through weekly online webinars, Playbooks and videos on-demand

"We're inclusive, not exclusive" is one of our Ellevate brand promises. By creating a membership that's free we are removing barriers, creating a community where everyone can belong, and building a stronger coalition of people who are committed to owning their success and helping each other get to the top. And — most importantly — by mobilizing this coalition, we can change the world.

We're thrilled you're a part of the Ellevate community and I hope you'll take advantage of this opportunity to explore, learn and build relationships with other members who will change your life.

If you have any questions, check out the Limited Access Support Center or create a Support ticket.

All the best,

Christina
