Upcoming Events and Training on Demand

Neighborhood Matching Grants Pre-Application Workshops (8/13, 8/18, & 8/24)

Join us to learn the ins and outs of your Neighborhood Matching Grants (NMG) program. These pre-application workshops will help you think through project ideas, provide instruction for completing the online application, and tell what you to expect during the application and project implementation processes. Attendance at a workshop is required prior to applying for a grant.

These workshops will take place via Zoom. To participate, please register here.

How to be a Bridge-BUILDER in your Neighborhood (On Demand)

What does it mean to be a bridge-builder? A bridge-builder is someone who establishes relationships, improves communication and helps to build trust among varying groups. Janeen Bryant, facilitator and community engagement specialist, helps explain how to be a better bridge-builder in your neighborhood. This training focuses on how to:

- Understand your neighborhood in context using city and county data
- Map resources and people
- Build and heighten awareness of the neighborhood as an ecosystem of shared resources
- Strengthen your relationships and connection to the City of Charlotte and to your neighborhood
- Heighten your capacity to lead/discuss across difference and understand self-interest.

Charlotte Community Toolbank (On Demand)

Does your neighborhood or non-profit need to borrow giant jenga in January? Adirondack chairs in April? An outdoor movie screen with projector in October?

If your neighborhood group would like to rent tens of thousands of items for pennies on the dollar, watch this video tour to learn more about the Charlotte Community ToolBank. The ToolBank has a wide variety of tools including lawnmowers, shovels, wheelbarrows, ladders, pressure washers, drills, and more.
