CYNTHIA WALLACE FOR CONGRESS

Ballots are landing in voters' mailboxes right now across North Carolina. More voters across the country are requesting mail-in ballots this year as we continue to see COVID-19 cases rise.

Everyone should feel safe participating in our democracy and having their voice heard when they cast their ballot. Are you planning to vote-by-mail this November?

YES NO

Hi Steve,

I'm Cara, the Wallace campaign's new Organizing Director!

We are less than two months away from November 3, and ballots are landing in mailboxes in NC-09, across the state, and the country. As the COVID-19 pandemic continues to spread across our nation, many Americans are turning to mail-in voting to avoid long lines or exposure to the virus.

With the United States Postal Service's delivery slowdown, mail-in voting has become a divisive issue, and it shouldn't be. This election will be one of the most important of our lifetime, and everyone deserves to have an equal opportunity to vote and have their voices heard at the ballot box.

Having a plan on how and when you're going to vote is the best way to ensure that you get your vote in on time.

So we wanted to check in with you, Steve, and see how you're planning to cast your ballot this year: Are you planning to vote-by-mail in this November election?

YES NO

Thanks for having your voice heard,

Cara Pearson
Organizing Director
