Early Voting Begins October 15 | Election Day November 3

Campaign Weekly Update

On the 2020 general election ballot, City of Charlotte voters have the opportunity to approve a $197.2 million bond referenda package that will fund construction and revitalization of transportation corridors including streets and sidewalks, more affordable housing, and improvements to neighborhoods in established and emerging high-growth areas. At end end of your ballot, please vote YES for all three bonds: $102.7 million for streets, $50 million for housing and $44.5 million for neighborhoods.

Facebook Live: Virtual Bonds Discussions Starting Tomorrow

Tomorrow, Friday, October 16, we're kicking off a virtual bonds discussion series, which will be hosted on Facebook Live and covering the bonds topics of housing, streets and neighborhood improvements.

Here are the details of the trio of virtual events, so make sure to mark your calendars! Facebook Live event links below.

Friday, October 16, 12-12:30

Bonds Discussion: Housing

Tomorrow's event is focused on affordable housing and our speaker will be Pam Wideman, director of the City of Charlotte's Housing and Neighborhood Services, who will provide information about how the city uses affordable housing bonds. The event will be moderated by John Kindbom, Canopy REALTOR Association President.
