The power of public spaces

Begins Wed. Oct. 21, 12:45 p.m. ET | 9:45 a.m. PT

KNIGHT PUBLIC SPACES FORUM

Knight believes that public spaces play an essential role in fostering more informed and engaged communities. This year's Knight Public Spaces Forum will focus on how leaders from across the country are pivoting their public spaces in response to the COVID-19 crisis, economic downturn and the most recent wave of racial justice movements. The two-day event will include curated discussions that explore several dimensions of public spaces, including leadership and decision-making; design and programming; cultivating equitable public spaces; and leveraging technology in the public realm. Space is limited, so reserve a spot quickly.
