Building people, not prisons since 1974

Rebuilding the lives of those affected by incarceration.

Dear Steve,

In the spirit of giving and thanks, Giving Tuesday, a national day to celebrate both, is coming up December 1st.

North Carolina has over 1.6 million residents with a criminal record. These individuals and their families face a myriad of barriers to successful reentry, now exacerbated by COVID-19, preventing them from obtaining housing, employment, education, and healthcare.

This Giving Tuesday, we're asking you to Unite for Second Chances with a gift of \$50, \$75, \$100, \$250 or more to CCT. Your gift will rebuild lives and give a second chance to hundreds of families through our re-entry and support services like LifeWorks!, Families Doing Time and our Center for Women,

Thanks again for your past support and current consideration to Unite for Second Chances, giving men, women and children impacted by incarceration a second chance to rebuild their lives.

Donate to CCT Today!

Or, mail your check made out to CCT to:
Center for Community Transitions / PO Box 33533
Charlotte, NC 28233

Sincerely,

Patrice Funderburg
Executive Director
