CYNTHIA
WALLACE
FOR CONGRESS

Dear Steve:

At this time of year, many of us review our prior year and look forward to what changes we will make in the new year. As I reflected on the unprecedented 2020, where I had the privilege to run for NC's 9th Congressional district, I know that there were many challenges, but also many blessings that came out of our new way of living.

For me, connecting virtually with family and friends near and far was one of the biggest blessings. We made time for each other and were able to connect via Zoom in a way that wouldn't have happened pre-pandemic. That virtual connection extends to many of you on this email who I've never met in person. I hope that you have some blessings to reflect on as we think about the year that's passed.

So, as we put 2020 in the rearview mirror let's focus on the hopes of a promising 2021 with a Biden-Harris administration that will bring us closer together as a nation whether in person or in virtual settings. I wish you a very HAPPY NEW YEAR that brings you peace, prosperity, health and many blessings!

Best wishes,

Cynthia Wallace
