Rep. Alma Adams Statement

Washington, D.C. – Today, Congresswoman Alma Adams (NC-12) released the following statement:

“I want you to know I am safe, our 12th District Staff is safe, and we are sheltering in place. Right now, the safety of our staff and colleagues is my number one priority. As soon as the situation at the Capitol passes, I stand ready to do my constitutional duty, certify the vote, and return to the business of working for the people. Thanks to everyone who is concerned for our safety and checking in on us.”
