Dear Steve:

Since Trump won't resign and Pence won't push for the 25th Amendment, a bipartisan impeachment is the only option.

This must be done for a president who spoke to a rabid mob of supporters and told them follow him to the US Capitol where the 2nd, 3rd, and 4th persons in line of Presidential succession were doing their constitutional duty of electoral certification. The President called on his supporters at the pre-riot rally to march to the Capitol and "be strong" and "show strength", inciting them to take action against the government. This same president, of course, went the opposite direction while his amped up riotous mob (Blue Lives Matter crowd) stormed the Capitol, killing one police officer and injuring others while trying to get to the Vice President and Speaker of the House.

Last week's actions were the act of riotous mob hell-bent on undoing the will of more than 80 million Americans in states won by large numbers of minorities who lawfully voted to see leadership change at the highest level. We are only beginning to understand how far and wide the insurrection occurred.

Today, Congress is taking the historic step of voting on an article of impeachment against outgoing President Donald Trump that accuses him of incitement of insurrection in connection with last week's Capitol breach and riotous activities. It is the first time in American history that a President has been impeached twice during his term.

When a member of Congress takes their oath, they promise to "support and defend the Constitution against all enemies foreign and domestic" (emphasis mine). The mob that gathered last Wednesday were, indeed, enemies of America, hell-bent on disrupting the government and installing Donald Trump for four more years.

I hope that our Congressman, Dan Bishop, rises up to do his duty to protect his oath and defend against this insurrection and defend the rights of all of the people he represents. This is a vote of conscience and love of country, not a vote of political expediency. I plan to call today to let him know that he should join Congresswoman Liz Cheney and other Republican leaders and support the article of impeachment and I encourage you to do the same.

Monroe office: 704-218-5300, Lumberton office: 910-887-6465 or DC office: 202-225-1976.

We continue to live in trying times. I hope you are taking care of yourself. Brighter days are ahead!

Warm regards,

Cynthia L. Wallace
