

Free home activities for your child...

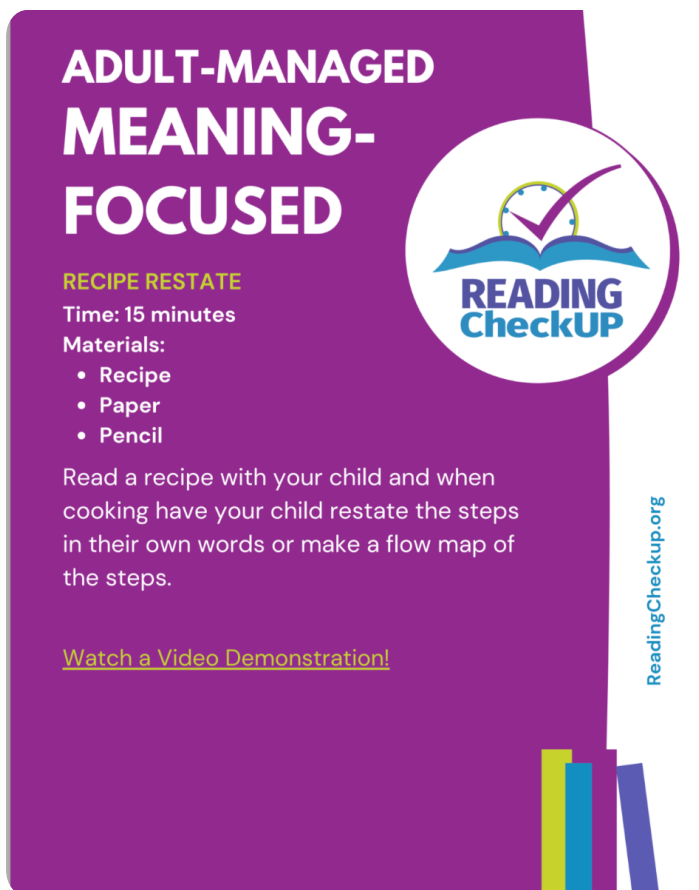

From Read Charlotte <elise@readcharlotte.org>
To Steve Johnston <sjohnston@tuesdayforumcharlotte.org>
Date 2021-02-03 07:44

Reading & building literacy skills together at home can be one of the most rewarding and comforting ways to bond as a family. These moments are priceless and we're here to help you make them happen.

ADULT-MANAGED MEANING-
FOCUSED

RECIPE RESTATE
Time: 15 minutes
Materials:

- Recipe
- Paper
- Pencil

Read a recipe with your child and when cooking have your child restate the steps in their own words or make a flow map of the steps.

Watch a Video Demonstration!

ReadingCheckup.org

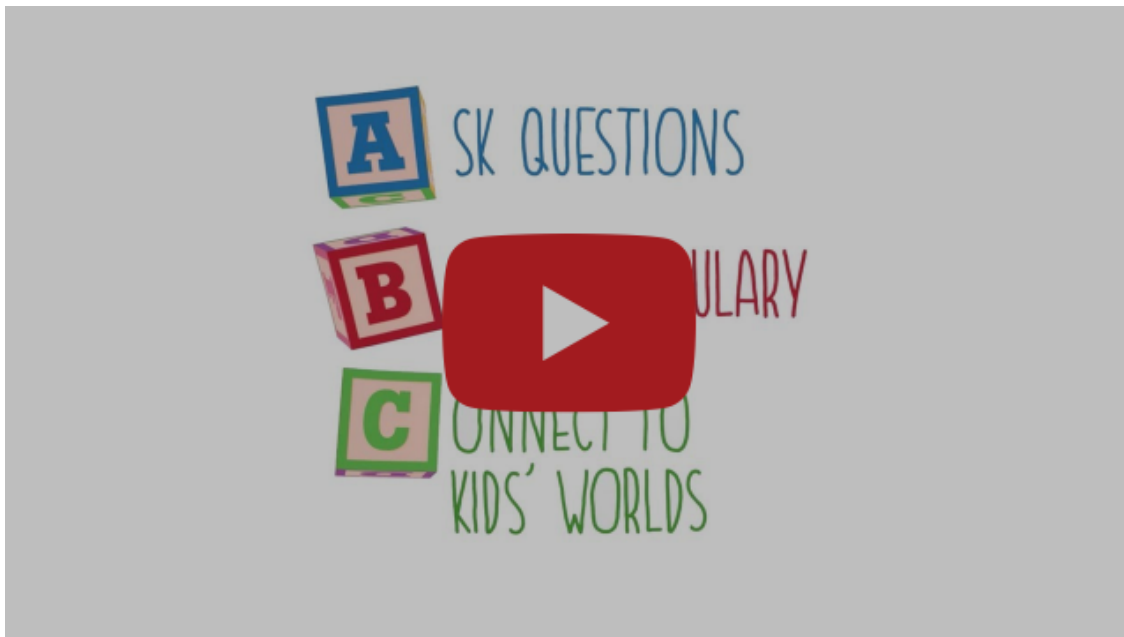

The card features a purple background with a white circular logo containing a clock and a checkmark over an open book, with the text 'READING CheckUP' below it. At the bottom right, there are three colorful books (yellow, blue, and purple) and the website URL 'ReadingCheckup.org' written vertically.

Getting a Reading Checkup for your child begins online but the results you receive take your family back to the basics of interacting face-to-face and mostly, with everyday items. Once your children complete the two online quizzes, all activities (like this one pictured here) are done OFFLINE. Simply select your favorite activities from the list, put the screens away & watch your child's skills grow!

Begin Reading Checkup

Making the most of reading time.

Did you know reading with a child for just 15 minutes (three times a week) can have a huge impact? It's true, especially when you practice Active Reading.

Learn the ABCs of Active Reading to build your child's language, vocabulary and comprehension skills from 6 months old through 6th grade!

Share

Tweet

Forward

Copyright © 2021 Read Charlotte, All rights reserved.

Our mailing address is:

220 N Tryon Street
Charlotte, North Carolina 28202

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.