Goodwill is now offering five new virtual IT training courses—see if they're right for you!

Did you know that data analysts and help desk technicians are in high demand? Goodwill Industries of the Southern Piedmont now offers five new IT training courses. These 12-week online classes include Business Analyst/QA Tester, Database Associate – SQL, IT Help Desk A+, Data Analyst and Digital Marketing Specialist.

The application period for all of these courses (except IT Help Desk A+, whose application period has already closed) is open until Friday, February 12 with classes beginning Monday, March 1. To apply for a course, email VirtualCareerResources@goodwillsp.org.

Like all of our training programs and career services, these IT courses are free of charge, thanks to the community's donations and purchases. And remember, Goodwill also provides job search and placement services so you can apply your newly acquired knowledge right away.
