GOOD TALKS: A CONVERSATION WITH MIA BIRDSONG

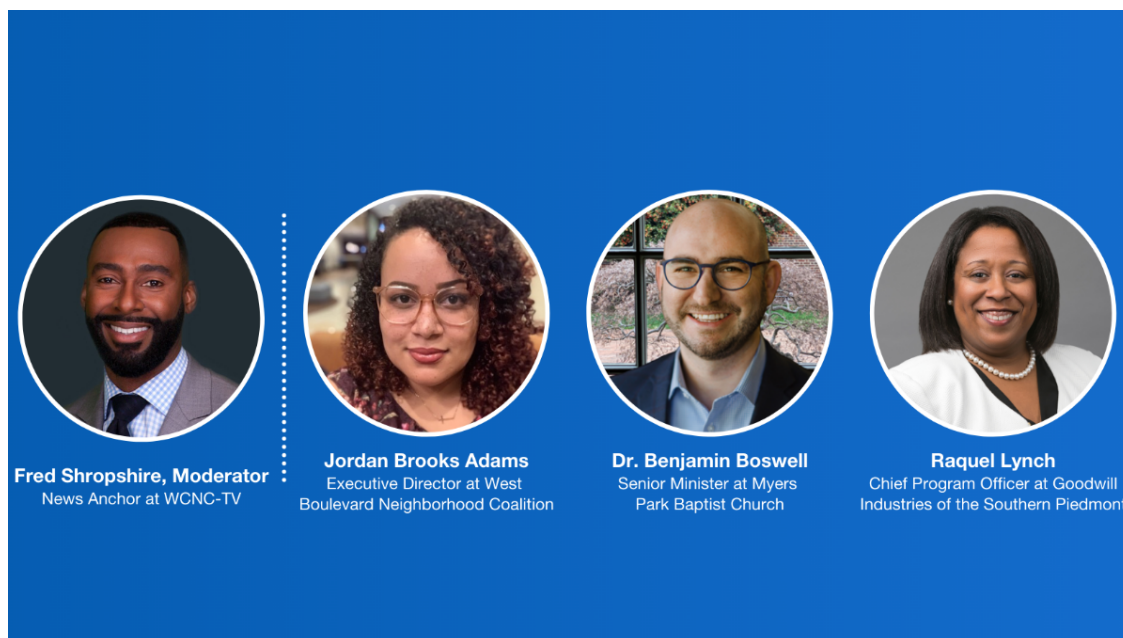

Wednesday, February 17
12:00 to 1:00 P.M.

We invite you to join us for a virtual conversation with Mia Birdsong on Wednesday, February 17, at 12 p.m. Mia is a pathfinder, community curator and storyteller who steadily engages the leadership and wisdom of people experiencing injustice in order to chart new visions of American life.

The conversation will focus on the need for strong communities and the self-determination of people who work hard every day to make a better life for themselves against some incredible odds.

The event will be moderated by local news anchor Fred Shropshire and have a community response panel featuring...

Good Talks events are designed to connect those who want to explore new ideas, perspectives and potential solutions for individuals and families seeking opportunities for economic advancement.

We know that this conversation will spark strategic, creative and innovative thinking on how we address the challenges faced by individuals and families striving for economic opportunities in our community.
