Dear Stephen,

Artists have long been finding innovative ways to leverage technology in their work. To continue supporting their creativity, we are announcing today the recipients of the 2021 Knight Arts + Tech Fellowship. As part of the program, we are thrilled to award five artists using new and emerging technologies in their work to address today's issues, with unrestricted grants of $50,000 each.

The Fellowship, launched by Knight Foundation and administered by United States Artists, supports each artist as they use digital media, artificial intelligence, augment and virtual reality, software, immersive installations and other mediums to create works and reach broader audiences.

Congratulations to the 2021 Fellows:

- Black Quantum Futurism (Philadelphia)
- Rashaad Newsome (Oakland)
- Rodolfo Peraza (Miami)
- Sondra Perry (Newark)
- Stephanie Dinkins (Brooklyn)

Through USArtists, our Fellowship will also establish a network for practice-sharing, collaboration and further opportunity through a new web-based publication called Shift Space that launches on March 24. The first Shift Space issue will highlight each of the five 2021 Fellows and the field of art and tech at large. Stay connected via Knight's social

We look forward to seeing the invaluable work these forward-thinking artists will continue to produce.
