Niner University Elementary (NUE) at Amay James is a public school created and led by education experts at UNC Charlotte. We help our students discover the joy of learning, and foster the growth of empathy and responsibility through knowledge. Our culturally responsive teaching is driven by our goal to support each learners' needs in a place where academic achievement, social development, and happiness can thrive.

Our approach

- 1 to 10 student-teacher ratio
- More opportunities for one-on-one instruction
- Positive, relationship-based, redeeming discipline practices
- Student-centered teaching
- Arts and culture across the curriculum
- We listen. The students, school, and community will work together towards success.

We also provide

- Bus services to all students in the district
- Nutrition services provide students with breakfast and a snack every day; students are eligible to receive free/reduced lunch and lunch is also provided by CMS
- Access to healthcare support
- Mental health care
- Play therapy
- Family supports
