COVID-19 Task Force to Host Virtual Town Hall on Food Insecurity and Relief

Mecklenburg County, NC - The Mecklenburg County COVID-19 Renewal and Recovery Task Force will hold a virtual town hall on Thursday, April 8, from 6 - 7:30 p.m. The entire community is invited to join this free event.

The purpose of the event is to bring awareness to the damaging effect COVID-19 has had on the struggle for food security in Mecklenburg County, while highlighting the relief efforts that are underway. Attendees will have the opportunity to hear from key field experts, ask questions, and learn about the various resources that are available to County residents.

Panelists for the event include:

- Tina Postel, Executive Director of Loaves and Fishes
- Nicole Banahene, Director of Partner Relations at NC MedAssist
- Jane Shutt, Executive Director of Pineville Neighbors Place
- Guy Cousins, President of the Board of Directors at the Three Sisters Market.
- Jordan Brooks-Adams, Executive Director of the West Boulevard Neighborhood Coalition

The town hall will be moderated by Kevin Kendrick, Co-Chair of the Community and Economic Development Committee of the COVID-19 Task Force.
